

Oh we love the halls of Laurel that surround us here today and we will not forget tho' we be far, far away. To the halls of Laurel every voice will bid farewell and shimmer off in twilight like the old vesper bell.

One day a hush will fall, the footsteps of us all, will echo down the hall and disappear, but as we sadly start our journeys far apart, a part of every heart will linger here in the sacred halls of Laurel, where we've lived and learned to know that thru the years we'll see you in the sweet AFTERGLOW.

Go Into All The World. . .

We are to train our young people to go out as missionaries. In order for our youth to understand the needs of the foreign mission fields, Laurelbrook has sponsored two trips to Belize in the past year. The pictures on these pages were taken on the trip last December, 1977.

Florence and Jim Burchard, who were workers at Laurelbrook for many years, accepted a call to go help start a self-supporting mission school in Progresso, Belize, Central America. The property was made available to the Layman Foundation by Mr. Zill of Delray Beach, Florida. On December 13, nine students and four staff went to Belize to help them build a 30' x 80' shop and storage building spot. The boys worked hard and nearly completed the tin roof on the building before returning home. The inspiration they received has been passed on to others and we plan a trip for another group in the near future.

We met God on the mountain and saw Him . . .

In the beauty of a rose . . .

. . .the communion of mind with mind and heart with heart, . . .is the work of true education to impart.

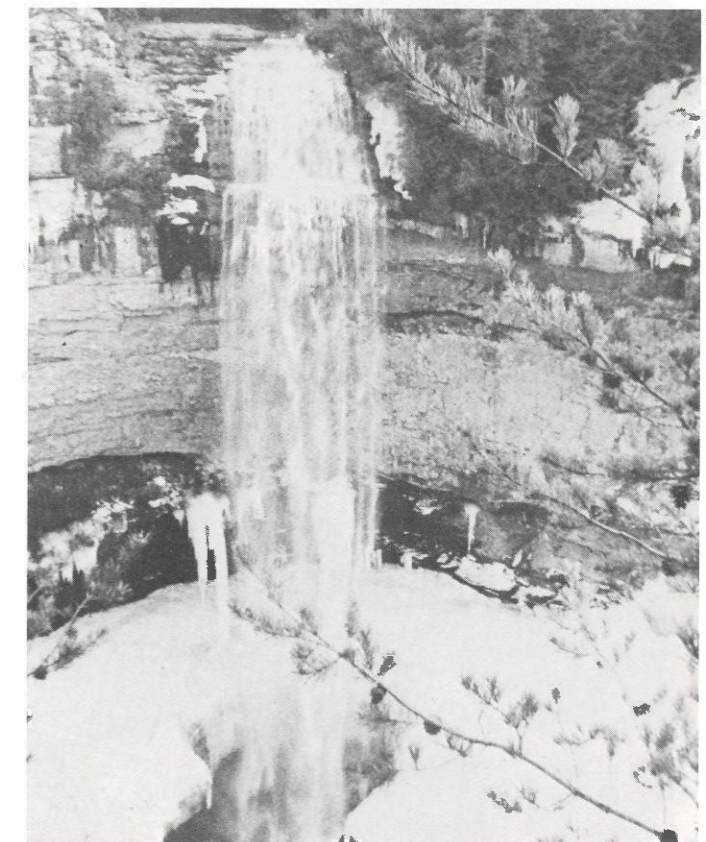

Ed. 84

We felt Him close to us . . . in the companionship of friends . . .

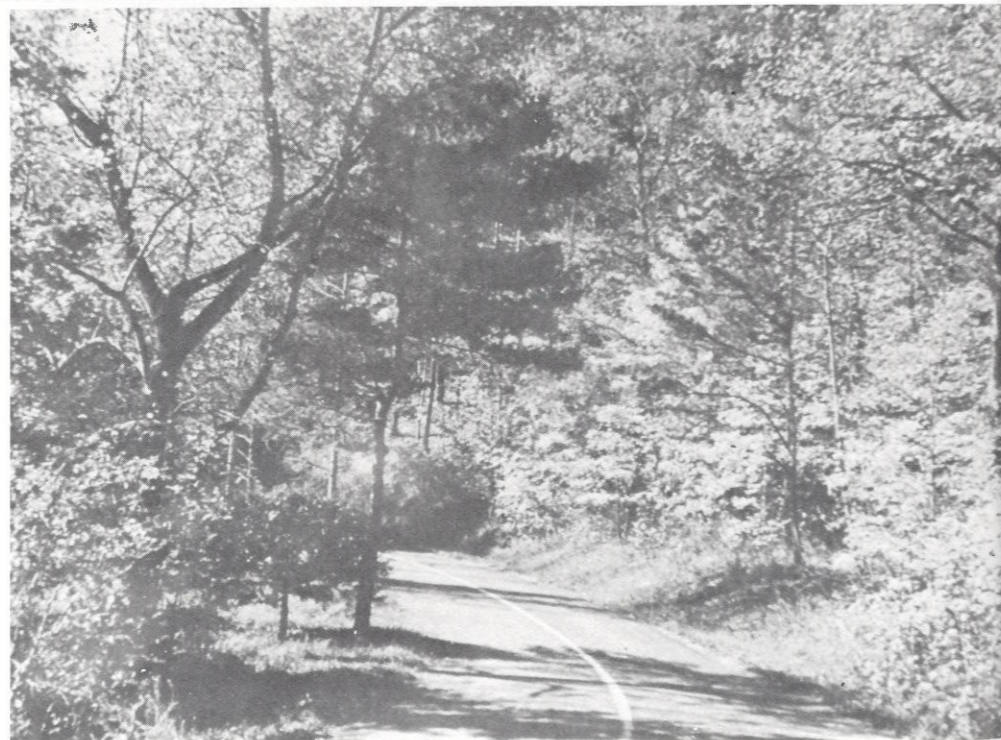

In the sweet smell of the flowers. . .

We heard Him as He spoke to us in the quietness of the chapel.

We walked with Him in the gentle breeze and in the warmth of the sunshine.

and in the falling of the water and ten thousand objects of nature has God spoken to us on the mountaintop.

In the nearness of student and staff. . .

On The Mountain With God . . .

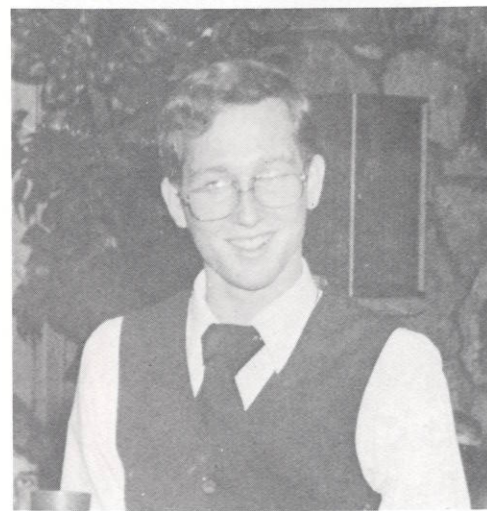

One of the greatest joys we've experienced on the mountain is seeing the mountain streams and the waterfalls. To many, their most precious memories and their favorite spot on the mountain is the Laurelbrook waterfalls. In the afterglow of our fondest memory the rushing sound of the falls still speaks to us of the happy days at Laurelbrook.

In nature the foundation of true education is firmly and surely laid. . . Upon all created things is seen the impress of the Deity. Nature testifies of God. . . To Him who learns to interpret its teachings. . . the world is a lesson book, life a school. . . In ten thousand objects in nature. . . is seen the love that restores. . . it speaks to us of God's goodness.

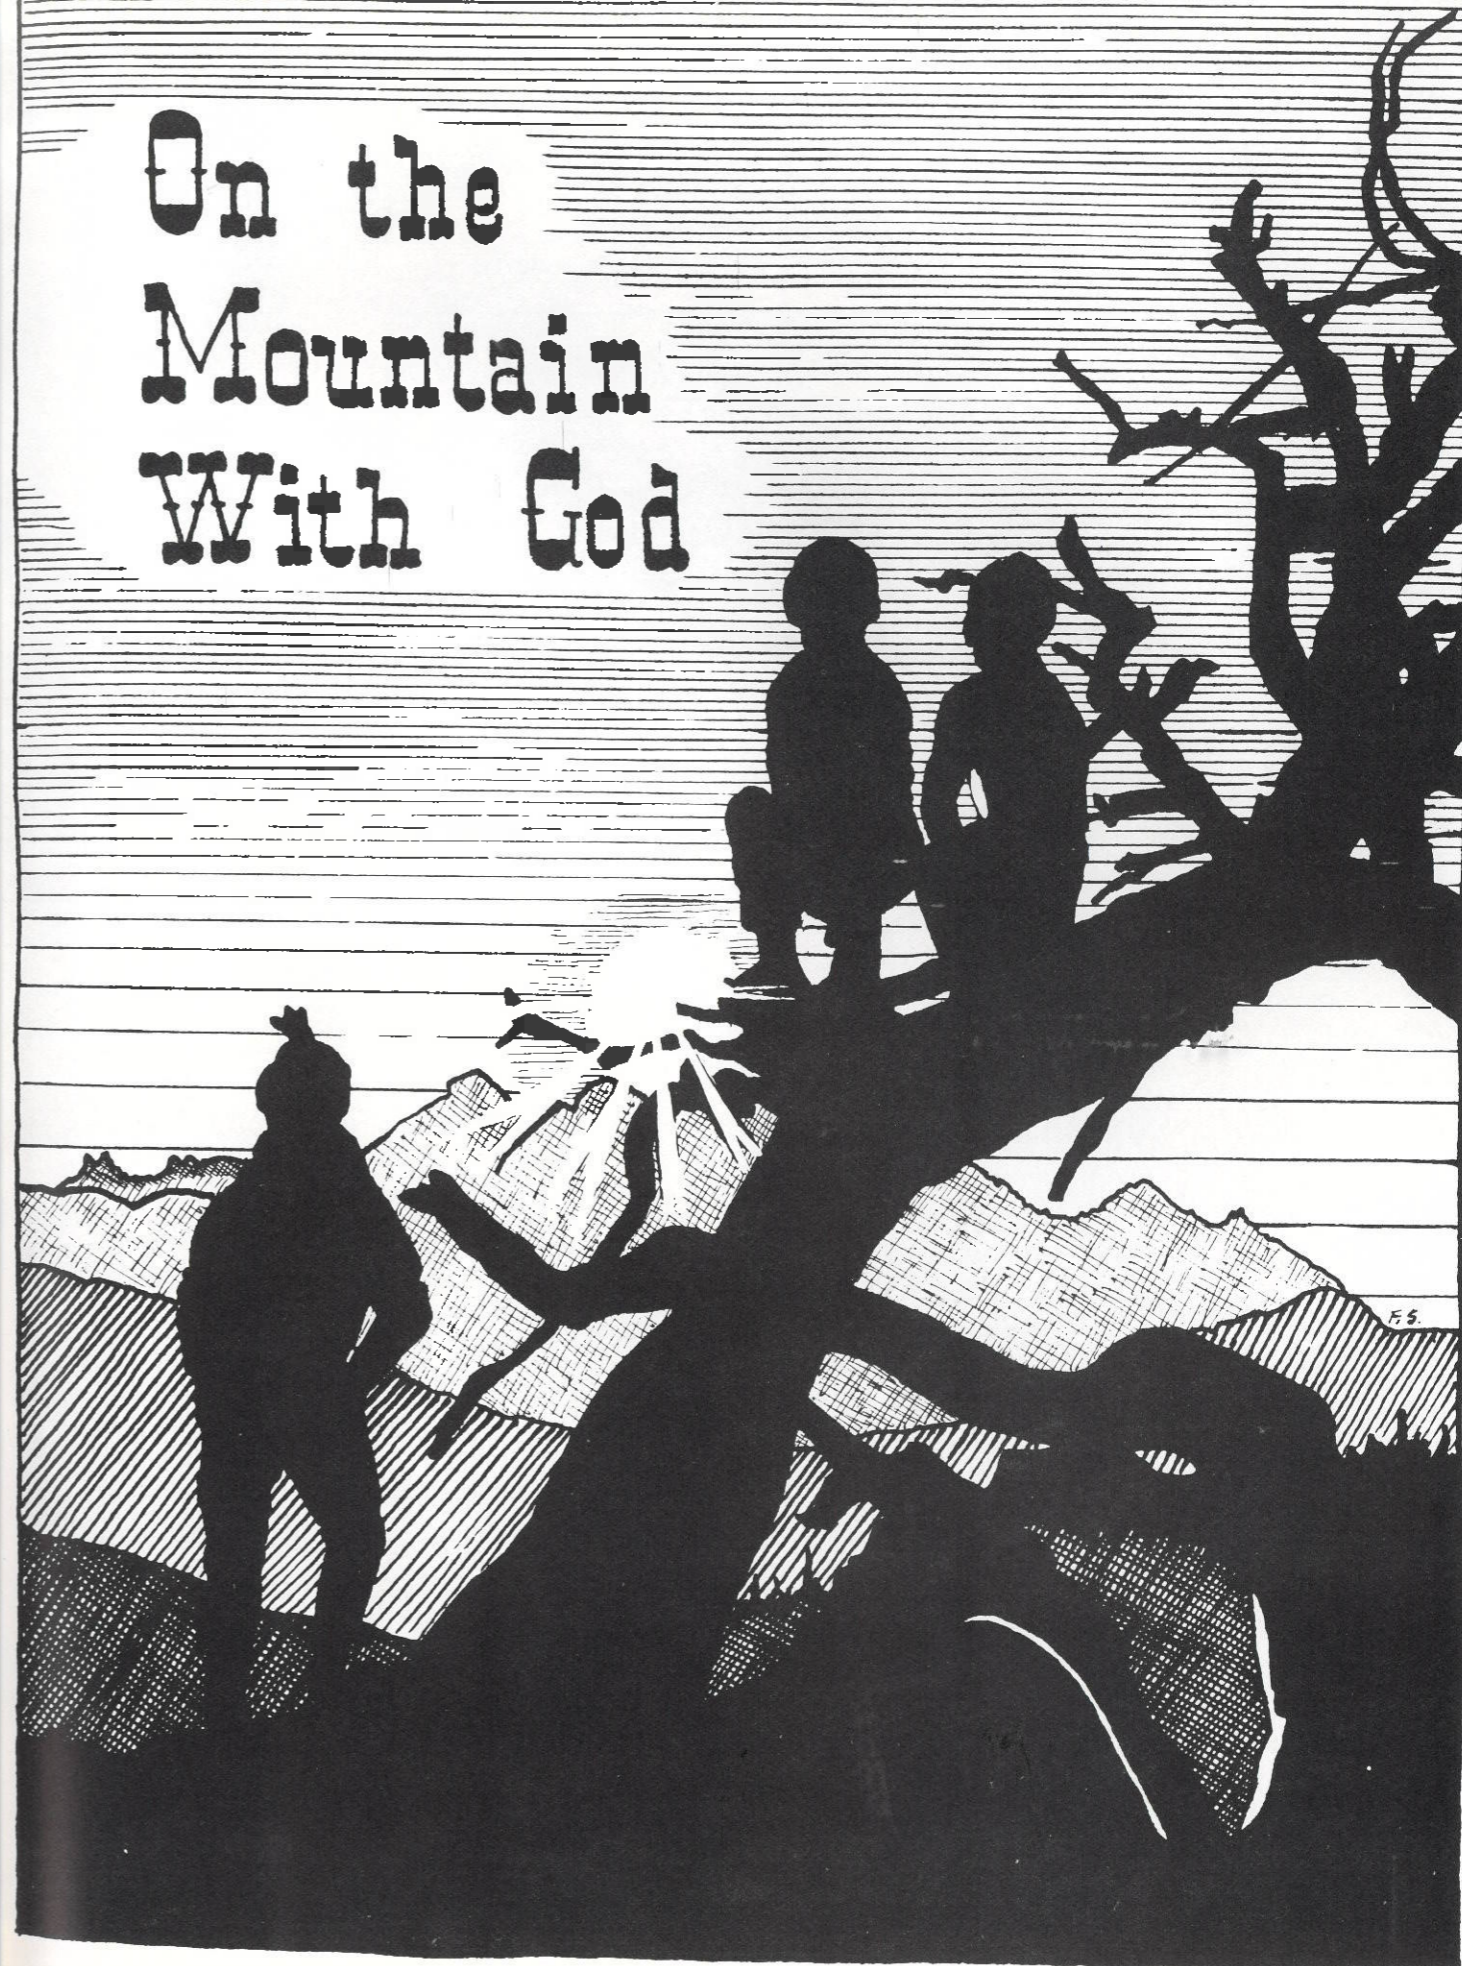

Ed. 99-101

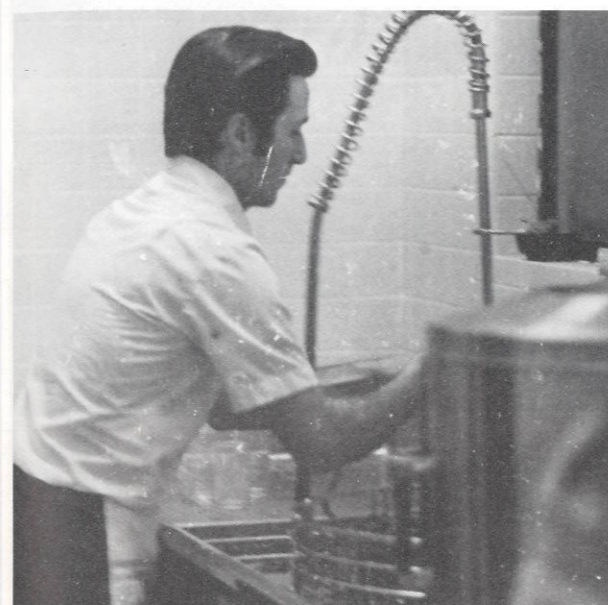

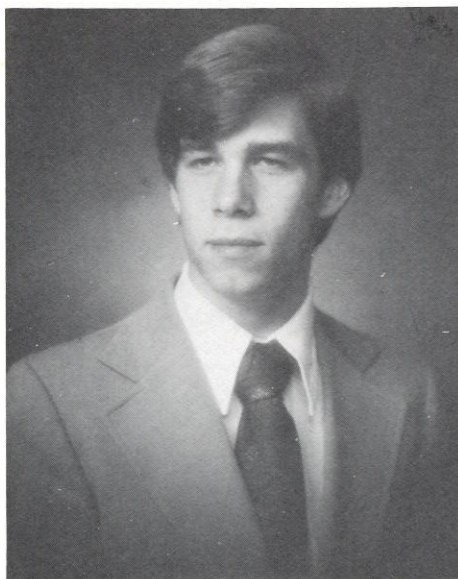

He who seeks to quench his thirst at the fountains of this world will drink only to thirst again. . . but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

DEDICATION

Russell D. Olson

You are beloved by fellow workers, students, and patients. It is not only an honor to dedicate this yearbook to you, but we've had the privilege of your life touching ours, and because of you our lives have been enriched.

The theme of the yearbook reminds us of you. Your untiring service, willingness to help, cheerful smile and patience are as steadfast as the mountains. Your own mountaintop experience has been a light on a hill that cannot be hidden.

You were born and grew up on a farm in Joplin, Missouri. You attended Oswego Academy in Oswego, Kansas, and also started Union College, but had to return home to help with the farm.

After farming over 40 years you and your wife decided to sell your farm and dedicate yourselves and your money to help finish God's work.

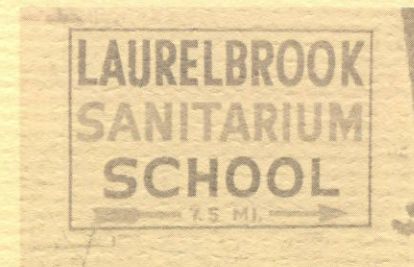

You came to Laurelbrook and have been instrumental in helping develop our agriculture program. Equipment was obtained, land bought, crops flourished, but above all the students learned to love the soil which is so dear to your heart.

After a serious sickness you became our purchasing agent and now our driver for town trips.

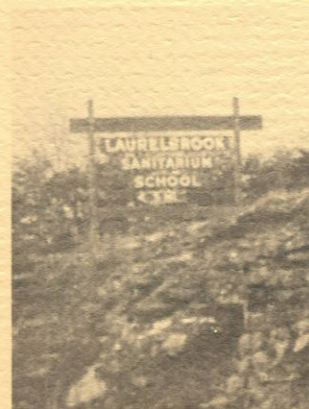

We've had a wonderful mountaintop experience together. As the sun sets behind the mountain, although the fruits of your labor will never be fully seen until the great hereafter, the memory of you and what you have done for Laurelbrook will ever be seen in the "Afterglow."

MOUNTAINS ARE EARTH'S UNDECAYING MONUMENTS

The sun has sunk; but another year will come. Will the influence of the mountain-top experience last? You, Laurelbrook, has left us at our best, what will become of it? What kind of a monument will I be after being here? "Give what you have to someone, it may be better than you dare think."

William L. Garrison

Happiness is . . .

Sharing Experiences . . .

Will the principles and standards I've been shown here be defeated? Shall I pass them on to someone still struggling down in the valley?

"We may be personally defeated, but our principles NEVER." William L. Garrison

WE SENT YOU OUT FULL . . .

WILL YOU COME BACK EMPTY HANDED . . .

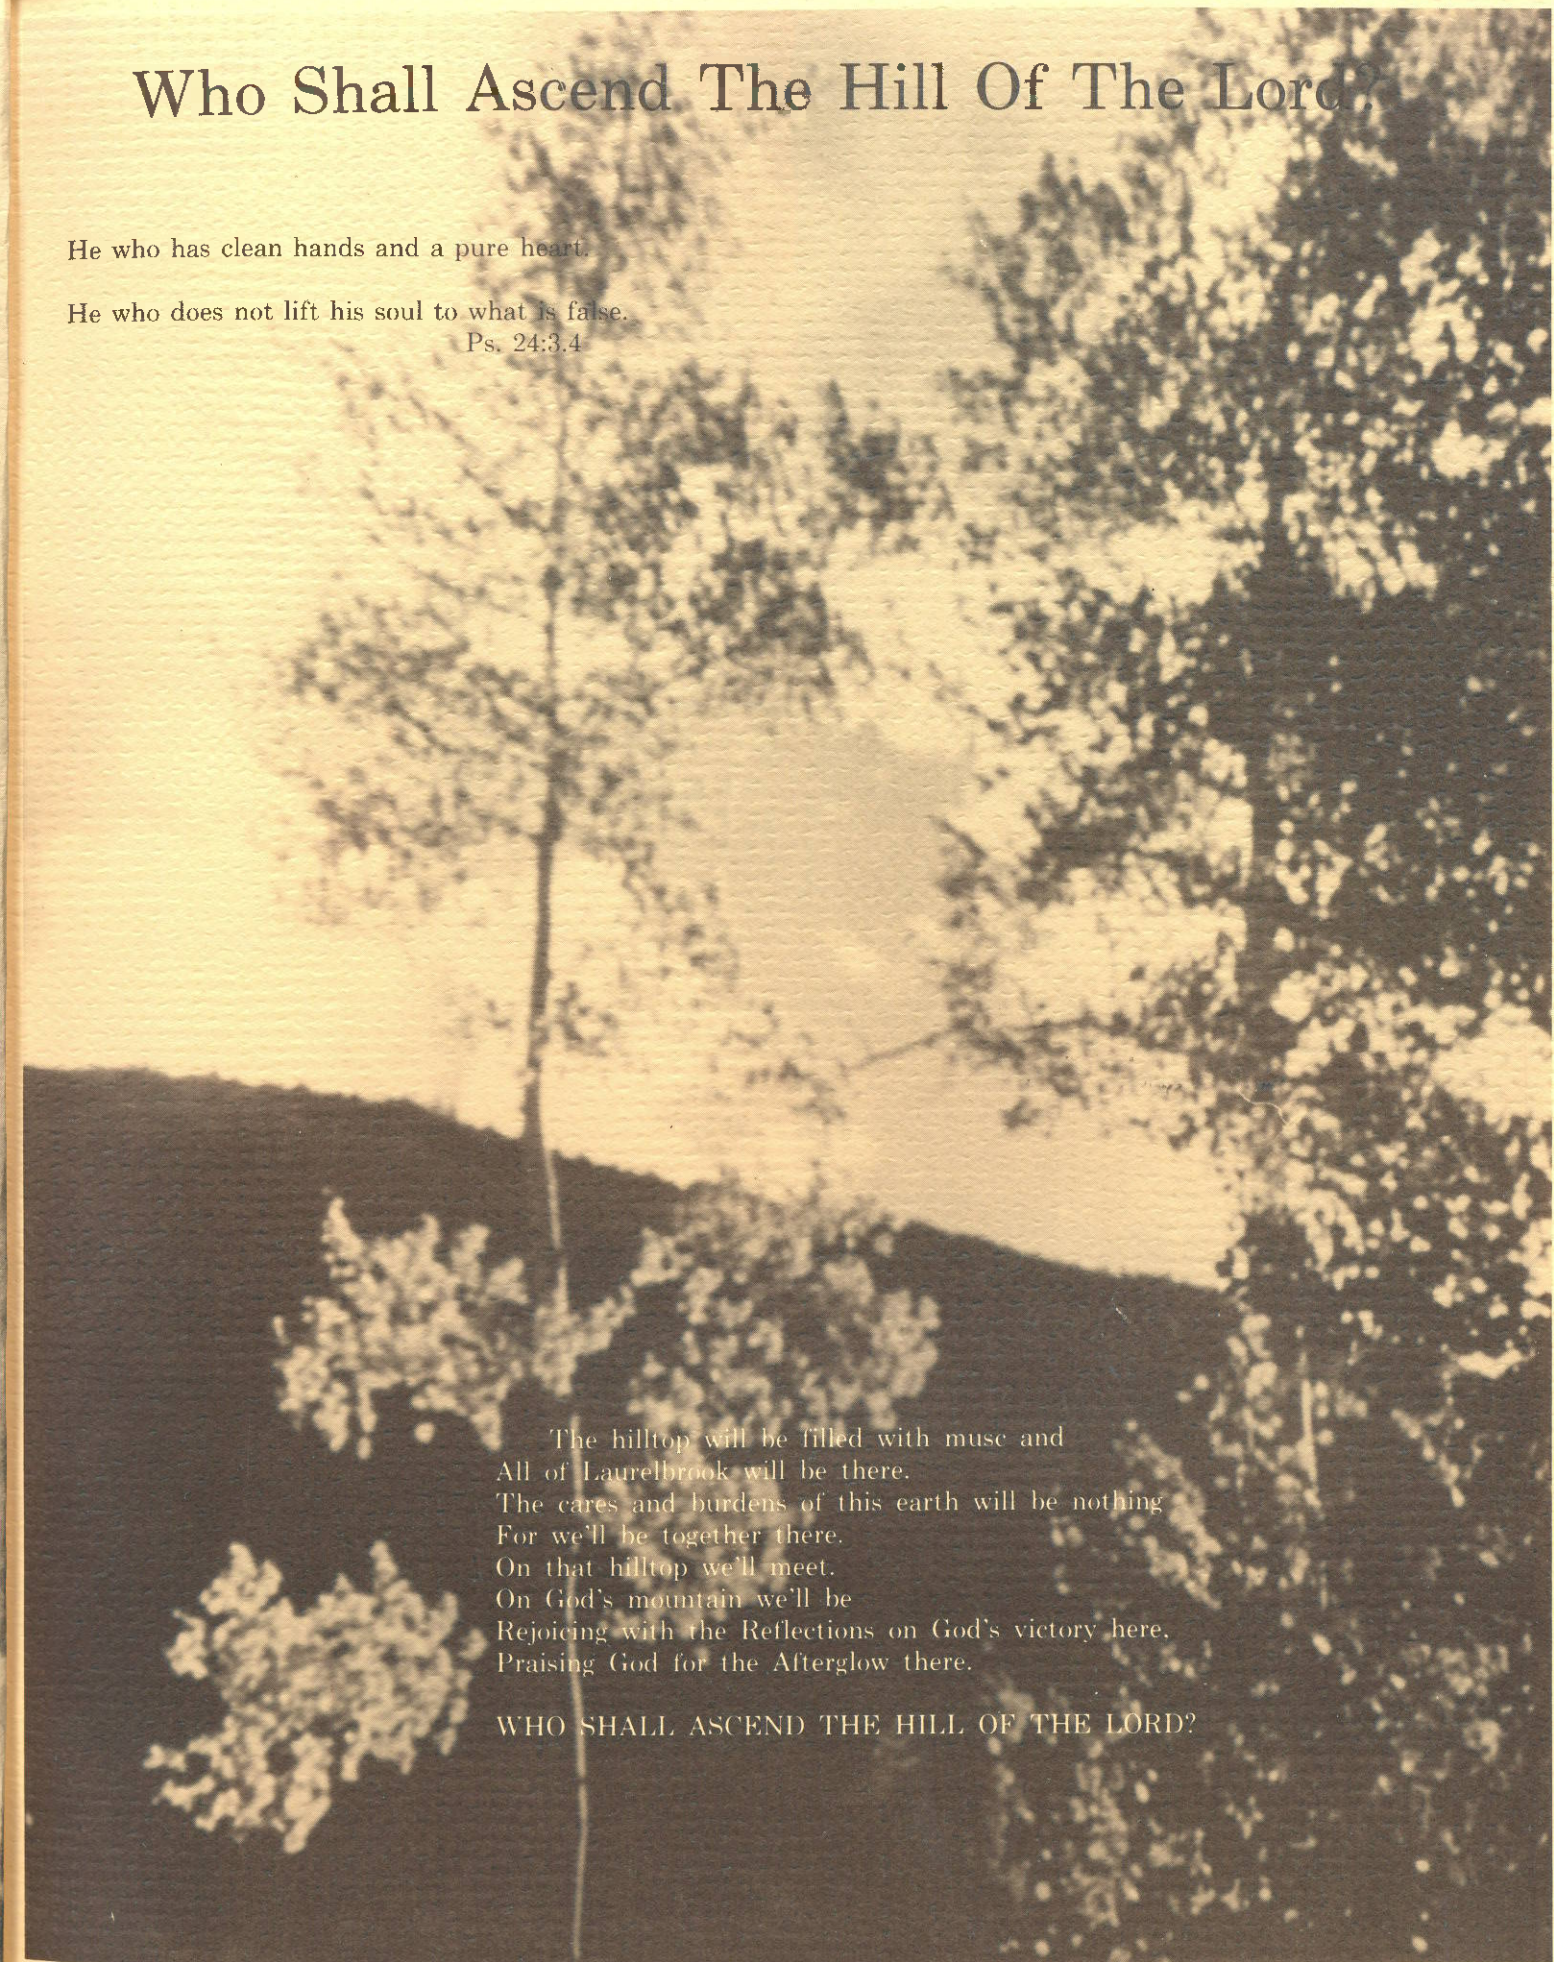

OR WITH DOUBLE PORTIONS??????

Who Shall Ascend The Hill Of The Lord?

He who has clean hands and a pure heart.

He who does not lift his soul to what is false.

Ps. 24:3,4

The hilltop will be filled with music and
All of Laurelbrook will be there.
The cares and burdens of this earth will be nothing
For we'll be together there.
On that hilltop we'll meet.
On God's mountain we'll be
Rejoicing with the Reflections on God's victory here,
Praising God for the Afterglow there.

WHO SHALL ASCEND THE HILL OF THE LORD?

Take Time for Reflection

I HAD JUST REACHED THE TOP WHEN THE SUN SET. . .

All that is left is the brilliant afterglow cast off from another year that has just slipped over the horizon. The fast-sinking glow lights up my memory and here at the top I take time for reflection. Just as the memory of the just is blessed, so is the end of a long mountain climb, the finish of a mountaintop experience led by our faithful guides.

My thoughts are so big and strong, so fresh and true, so full of the energy and time it's taken, so setback by the sad and hard times, yet running over with the joy and happiness. . .

FOR MEMORY HAS PAINTED THIS MOUNTAINTOP EXPERIENCE WITH COLORS THAT NEVER FADE. . .

The first few days we were awe-struck climbers, loaded with our hopes, our burdens, our ambitions, and our goals.

As we surveyed base camp and filled ourselves with watermelons, we got acquainted with our faithful guides.

Day by day we trudged the trail, sometimes the routine scenery and everyday duties dampened our spirits and slowed our climb, but when I started noticing the little things in life: the smiles and sunshine on some climbers' faces, the flowers bold enough to grow on the ledge, even the rough stones shone after a rain, I felt I could endure a few more steps.

All too soon the way got more complicated. This time a guide pointed me to our Head Guide and showed me how He led the way.

All through this year I've had a mountain-top experience with God. I've caught the vision of a higher goal. I won't be content with what I've done. I'll hitch my chariot to the sun.

Principal's Message

Dear Youth —

The theme of the annual is having a mountaintop experience. This is very fitting for the students here at Laurelbrook because you have spent a year on the mountaintop with your teachers and fellow classmates. Just being on a mountain is not the important thing. It is not where we are but what we are that is important. "Higher than the highest human thought can reach is God's ideal for his children."

Ed. 18

"The heights by great men reached and kept
Were not attained by sudden flight,
But they, while their companions slept,
Were toiling upward in the night."

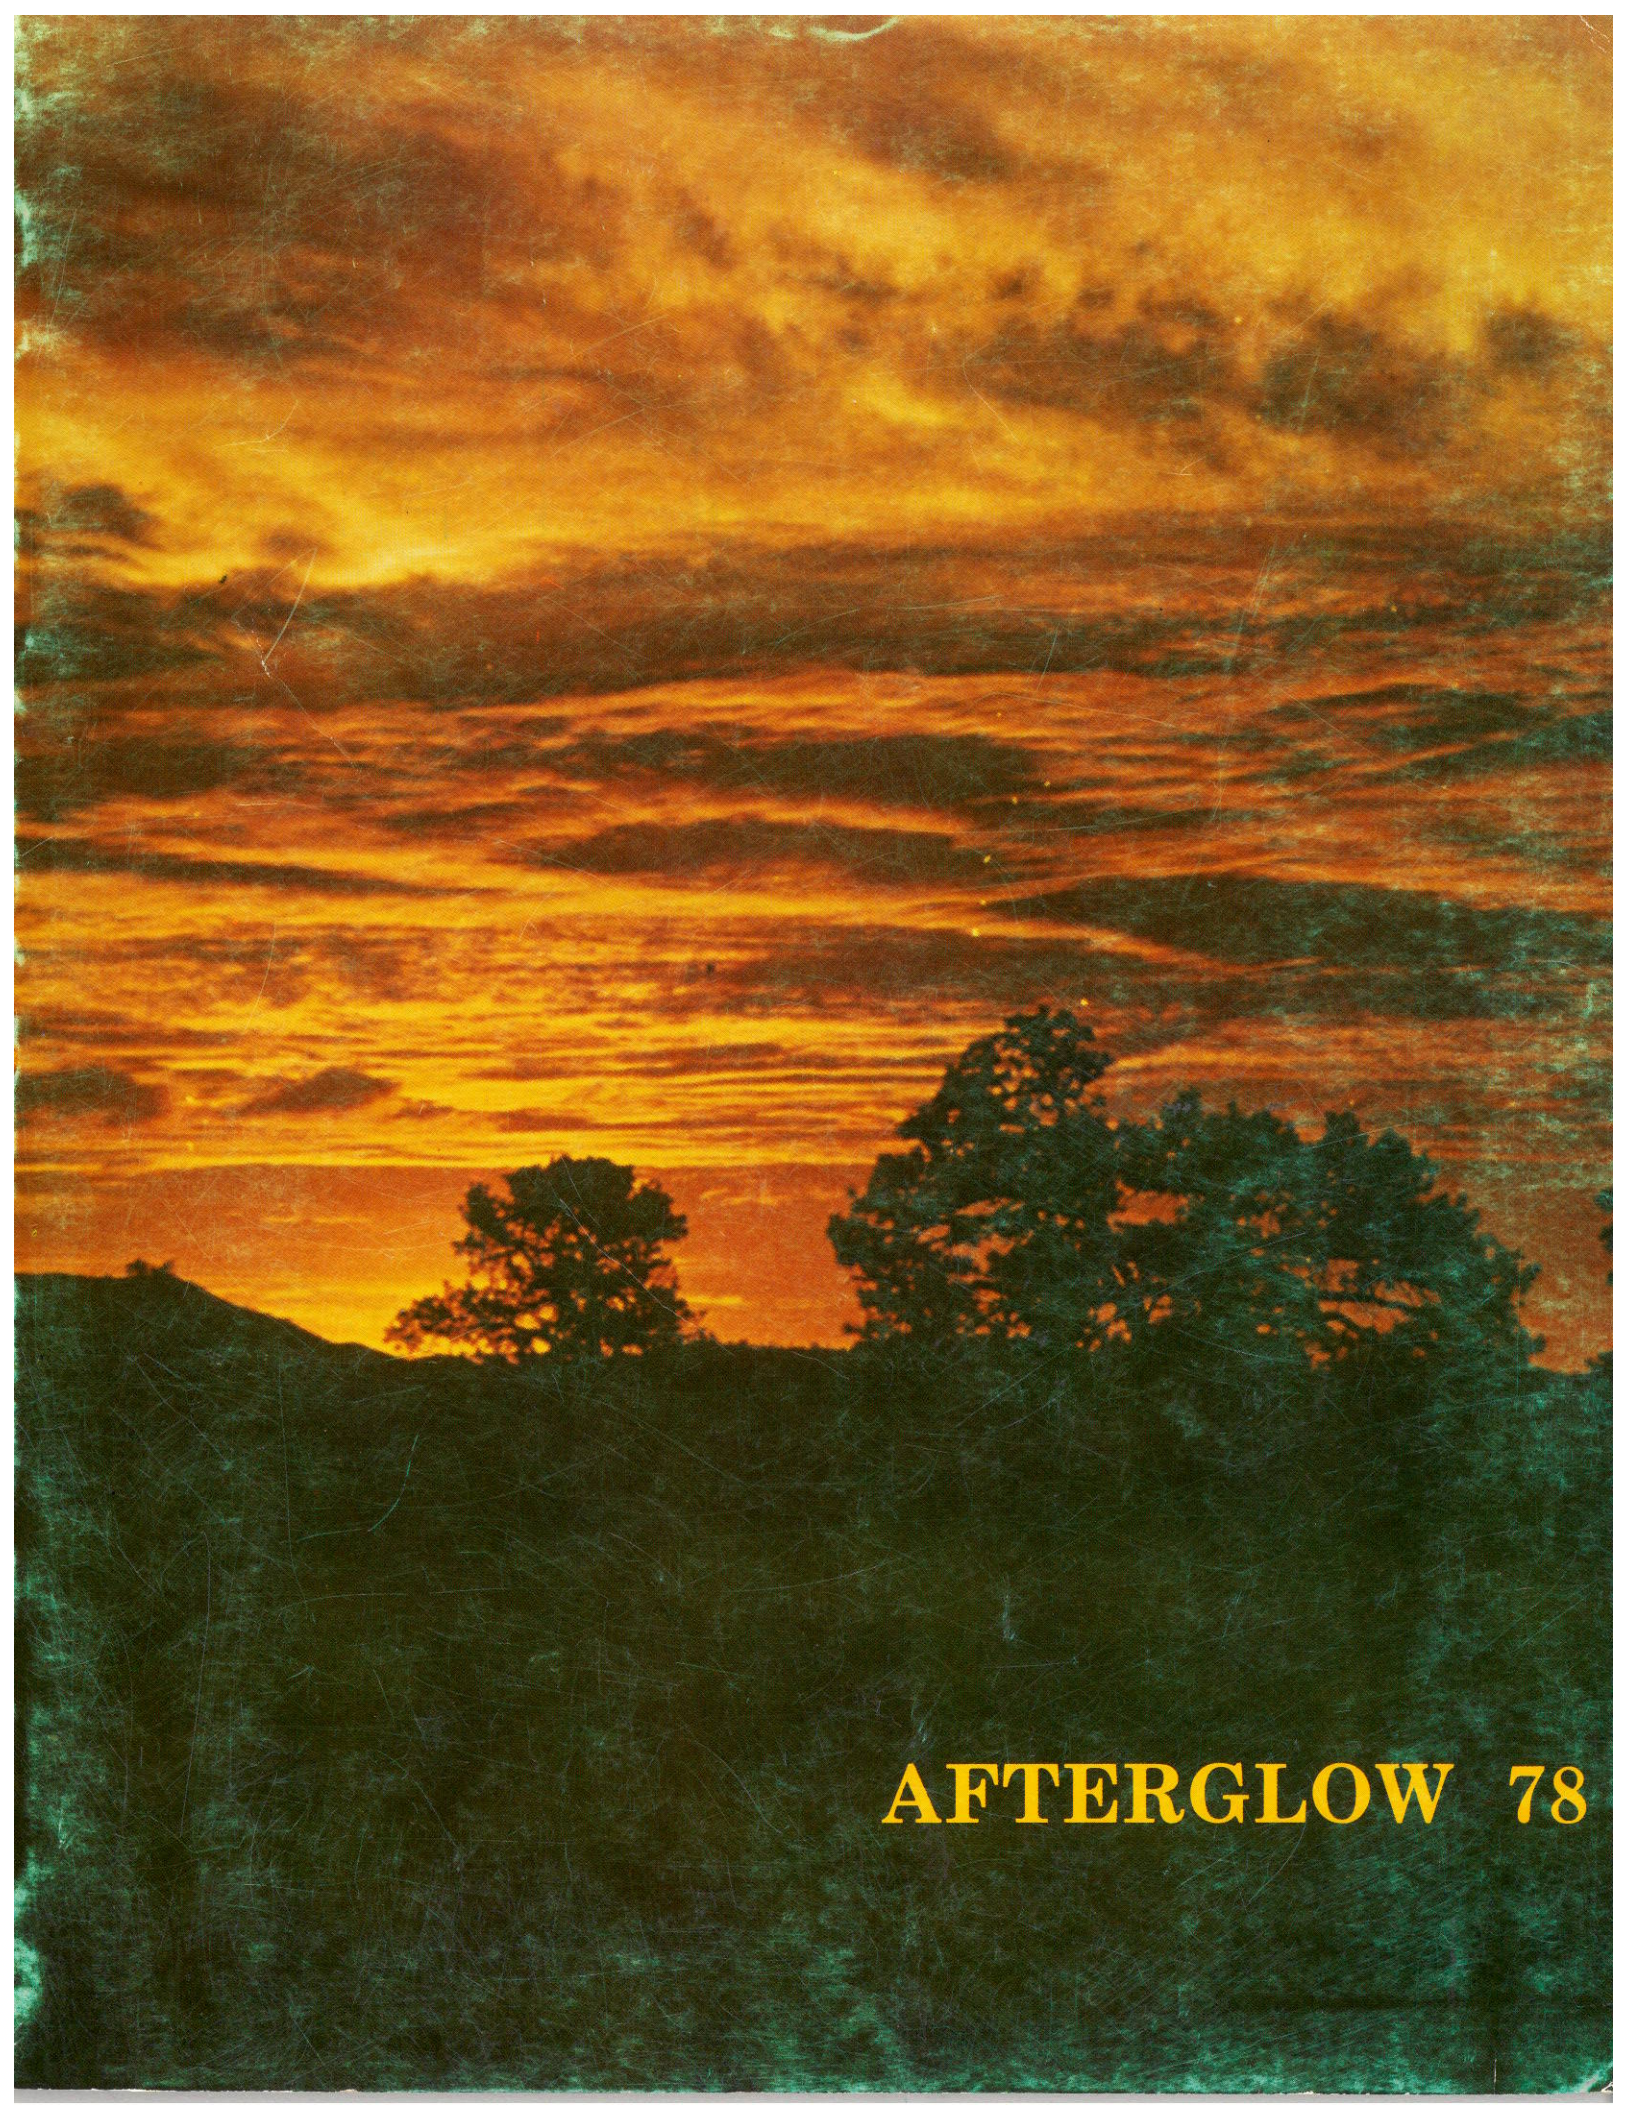

"We rise by things that are under our feet;
By what we have mastered of good and gain;
By the pride deposed and the passion slain,
And the vanquished ills that we hourly meet."

"And common things, each day's events,
That with the hour begin and end,
Our pleasures and our discontents,
Are rounds by which we may ascend."

It is my prayer that each of you will continue to climb higher and higher until we can all meet together on the lofty summit of the everlasting hills of God in the earth made new.

Keep looking up,

Mr. Bob
