Pastor's Message

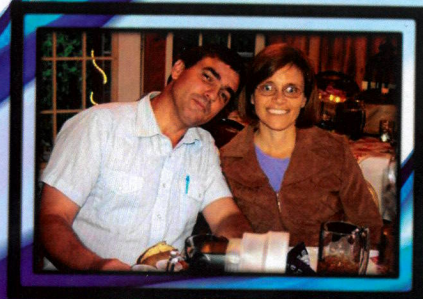

Dear Students:

Jesus' prayer to the Father for His disciples, recorded in John 17, has big implications for you as you prepare to leave Laurelbrook. Whether leaving just for the summer, embarking on a career or making plans for college, Jesus' prayer is for you. Jesus plainly states that "neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word" (Verse 20). In verse 14, Jesus also states that his disciples are not of the world, and that the world would hate them because of this. In spite of this gloomy reality, Jesus continues to pray in verse 15, "I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil." This seems like a very tough assignment. However, we must remember it is a very short assignment. Just a few verses later, Jesus prays, "Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am." Yes, the time between now and eternity is short - soon we will be living with Jesus forever!

In the meantime, God has asked us to be the salt of the earth, and the light of the world. A very tough assignment if asked to do it alone. However, Jesus has promised that He "will never leave thee, nor forsake thee," and "I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you." In this world within a world, we can have peace above the storms of life. From this vantage point, let us invite the world to join us.

May God richly bless your travels and guide you safely to your home in heaven.

Blessings,
Pastor David Wendt

President's Message

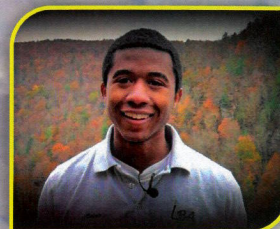

A long time ago, God made a perfect world. He put everything in it that man would need to be perfectly happy. Then He took some extra time to add a special touch. He planted a garden where Adam and Eve would have an extra special place all their very own. He made a world within a world where we were to be especially happy.

Sin came, and much of what God originally made has been messed up with hurt and misery. We are told, however, that we are to experience a little bit of heaven right here, right now. If we are kind to others, if we seek to lighten the burdens of someone else and if we are willing to pass on the comfort that God gives us to someone else, then the angels of heaven will help us experience heaven even here on this earth where the image of God has been so disguised by sin.

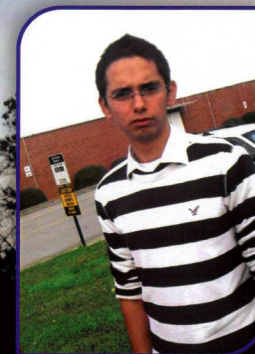

So at Laurelbrook, or wherever you go, my prayer is that every day you can be a blessing to someone else and help them make a better world within a world. God has put us in the world to be a blessing to the world, not to be isolated from it. We are to be part of it, making a little heaven right here.

Sincerely,
Ron Oxentenko, President

Junior Messages...

Well, the sophomore year is always an easy year; but the junior year doesn't get easier. Think positive, but just remember that you can do all things through Christ, who gives you strength.

Shantel Pryce

I've been at Laurelbrook for one year, but I feel like the junior year is not as hard as other years. Lots of time is given to us to complete our homework; and, if you pay attention to the teacher and if you use your time wisely, this year will be easier than any other year.

Christian Lazo

Hey, sophomores! The junior class is really easy, and you are going to have a lot of fun! Just stay focused and smile, despite your situation.

Elizabeth Espinal

Hey! Awesome! You are already juniors! You are going to enjoy the time you will have. Study hall is a blessing for homework! Stay close together as a class because that's going to help you through the year.

MESSAGES

Dear freshmen,

Laurelbrook is a great place to be. It may be hard at first, but with people like Arman and Verdun there will never be a dull moment. Remember that you can always learn something no matter where you are. So just try to make the best out of your experience here.

~Tyler Adams

To all my friends at Laurelbrook,

Never give up no matter what people say. And to all the freshmen welcome to your sophomore year and good luck with Mr. Brenneman's tests!

~Sarah Blanchard

Well, never give up and do your best. People may discourage you but don't let that get to you. Always try to stay positive. It may seem hard, but if you take it a step at a time, you will overcome it. If your friends discourage you, you know you always have a friend to look upon in times of need - God.

~Matlin Tzul

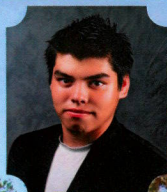

Well, my lovely freshmen, you're done with your first year in high school. I hope you did your best. Your sophomore year is going to be a little harder and more homework, but I know every single one of you is smart so it shouldn't be that difficult. I'm sure everyone knows Laurelbrook can be a difficult place sometimes, but whatever you make it depends on you.

Freshmen Experiences

At LBA.....

This year has been an awesome experience because I have met a lot of amazing people and it has taught me how to understand others' feelings. It has also taught me how to spend time with God and strengthen my relationship with Him.

- Arman Imtiaz

My freshman experience here has taught me many things about life and my relationship with God. I have learned to work hard and always do the best I can. I have made the most amazing friends I have ever had, and I am thankful God has brought me here.

- Heidi Oskintko

Laurelbrook has been awesome for me in many ways. The friends here are true and the education is helpful for life out in the world. From the church to the classroom to the kitchen to the farm, you are always learning something important for life. Best of all, coming to Laurelbrook has gotten me closer to God.

-Christine Magnuson

Laurelbrook has been a new experience for me. This school introduced me to new people who now have become good friends. With all the new friends I have here it also gave me a new social experience. Having to live with some of my classmates in the dorm has been interesting. The best experience I've had here was when we have recreation. Doing the great fun group activities has made things a lot more fun. I have had a really good time with the others when we would go have fun!

-Joash Arboleda

Laurelbrook has been a real blessing for me my freshmen year. It has been a year where I have learned how to grow spiritually. I have learned that friends from Laurelbrook are going to be forever and I can count on them for anything.

What

Laurelbrook

Means to Me

Laurelbrook is the place where when you go home for vacation, you can't wait to go back and see your friends. It's the place where you can find best friends for life. Being a missionary, being on fire to know God and having skills that can prepare you for life is Laurelbrook's ultimate mission.

~Inna Olteanu (freshmen)

Laurelbrook is a place to find friends who will last forever, grow in your relationship with Jesus, and ultimately find something better than the world is offering you. Laurelbrook is like a big family. There are challenges to meet and lots of wonderful opportunities to build character, but when the hard times come someone will always be there to get you through it. You will never be bored at Laurelbrook, and you will always have new and interesting opportunities that you won't get anywhere else.

~Becky Oxentenko (sophomore)

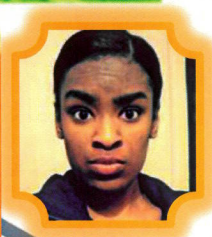

Laurelbrook is a place where I feel safe. It's a place of protection; it's a shelter in a time of storm. Also it's a place where the environment is appropriate to have a better relationship with God.

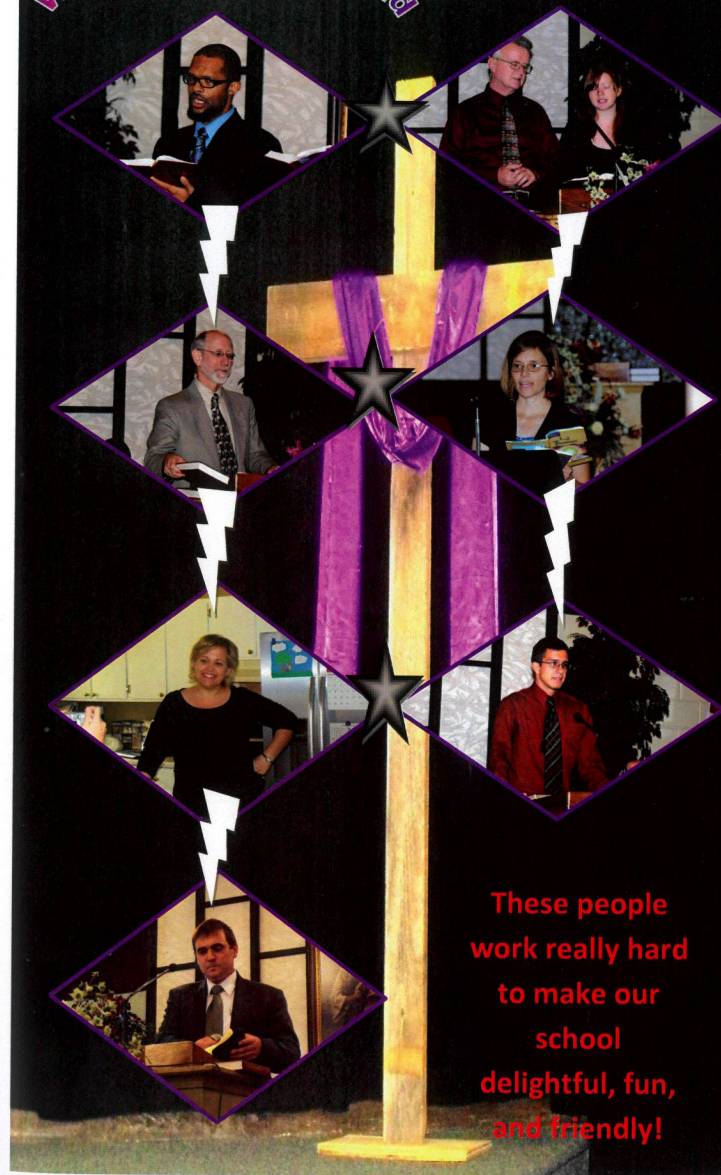

~Christian Lazo (junior)

My experience at LBA has been very interesting but good. I have learned from a lot of my mistakes, and that has built the character I have now. Three years of being here has taught me a lot - how to be a good supervisor, how to grow things, efficient time management, and much more. I have made true and lifelong friends during these three years.

Yearbook Staff

Three groups of students worked on the yearbook this year, each with an assigned list of pages to do. Each group took pictures and did page layouts although each page layout was handled by a single person. When one student left part way through the year, there were two groups. If you look at most of the pages, you will see that person's name at the bottom of the page. The staff was a little "world within a world" of the school as a whole.
