Dedicated to...

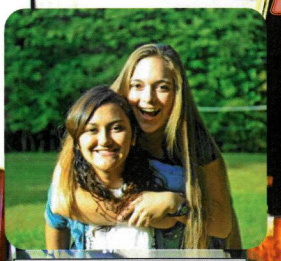

This year we have decided to dedicate the yearbook to a very devoted family. You have given your lives to God and to helping Laurelbrook become a better place. You help us by making sure that we have a very successful farm and that we all get fed with very delicious vegetables. You also make the residents in the nursing home feel special by letting them know they are loved. We really appreciate your hard work and are very thankful for your family. Without it, Laurelbrook would not be the same. So thank you so much for the work that you do at the school and for your ministry for God. You are a blessing to this school and for that reason we have all chosen to dedicate this year's yearbook to you, Enoch and Jane Choi.

금 년에 우리는 매우 헌신적인 가족에게 졸업앨범을 봉헌하기로 결정했습니다. 두 분은 로렐부룩이 더 좋은 곳이 되도록 돕고 있으며 하나님을 위해 삶을 드렸습니다. 두 분의 수고로 우리는 농장을 잘 운영하고 있으며 매우 맛있는 채소를 먹으며 건강하게 살아가고 있습니다. 또한 요양원에 거주하고 계신 분들을 특별한 사랑을 가지고 돌보고 계십니다. 우리는 두 분께 매우 감사드리며 특별히 수고하시는 노고에 대해 깊은 감사를 드립니다. 두 분의 수고가 없었다면 로렐부룩은 이렇게 발전하지 못했을 것입니다. 다시 한번 하나님을 위한 봉사와 학교에서 하시는 일에 대해 진정 감사를 드립니다. 두 분은 이 학교의 축복이기에 우리는 올해 졸업앨범을 에녹과 제인, 두 분에게 봉헌하기로 결정했습니다.

President's Message

This has been a very special year for us. God has blessed Laurelbrook with His spirit and unity of purpose; that has enabled us to work together to make this school a "missionary training school."

Ellen White states, "With such an army of workers as our youth, rightly trained, might furnish, how soon the message of crucified, risen, and soon-coming Savior might be carried to the whole world!" [Education, p. 271]

As I watch you as students - in the nursing home taking care of the residents, in the kitchens as you prepare the meals, outside driving tractors for the first time, or working in woods and grounds – I find that it's with great joy that I am a part of this. You students are the reason that I am here. You are the music, the laughter, and the fun of Laurelbrook.

When the staff were waiting for you to exit the building, with our arsenal of snowballs, my thoughts were "only at Laurelbrook could this happen." Then there was the evening that we played Waldensian Adventure, and I was crawling on my belly over the rocks in the dark trying to stay low and hearing the laughter, and I thought that I was the most blessed president of any academy.

Seniors, it's been a joy to be with you. I think I've learned more from you than you've learned from me. It's been a great year for both of us. May God bless you as you leave Laurelbrook and as you take up to the positions God has called you to have. May you have fine memories of your time here at Laurelbrook.

You have now joined the prestigious group of the Laurelbrook alumni with all the memories and skills that you have acquired here. Laurelbrook has helped form your character and become the person that God would have you to be. May the Lord be with you.

As for the rest of us that remain behind, let us continue to carry this vision forward, to become missionaries that are equipped to finish the Lord's work.

"We are living in an important and eventful age. We are almost home!" [Signs of the Times, May 29, 1884].

Sincerely,

Mr. Rich

Freshman Messages

Hi, everybody, I hope that you have enjoyed this school year. First, trust in God, and then don't worry about what happens. Be happy in everything. I love this school, and because of it I love God more.

~Jairit

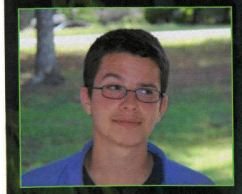

Laurelbrook has been such an amazing experience for me; it has helped me get back on the right track and go God's way.

~Alexis

I've learned a lot and grown spiritually. My advice to others is to keep your head up and smile. Smiles are contagious.

~Kassandre

School is fun, out in the sun. Always be prepared and on time. Do your best, and do no crime.

~T.J.

I learned you don't have to be like everyone else to fit in. You sometimes have to swim against the flow to reach the goal.

Junior Messages

This is going to be your best year. It is a year of great responsibility and a time to remember that whatever you do will affect your future. Ask God for wisdom, and He will direct you in the right path. I hope you guys stay together and have lots of fun. I love you all.

~Jessica Kim

This is by far your greatest year of high school. Stay focused, but have fun, concentrate, but not too hard. Stay positive and make the most out of every opportunity you are given. Keep God first and make a really awesome welcome back and banquet for us. Love you guys.

~Heidi Oxentenko.

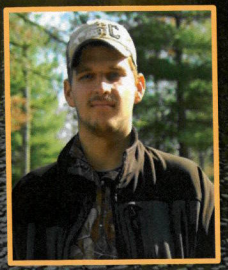

Take every chance you get to make your high school experience awesome. Trust me, your junior year is full of them. Never miss a moment of fun and memories with your class. Can't wait to share those memories with you guys! Remember to study for your ACT ASAP!

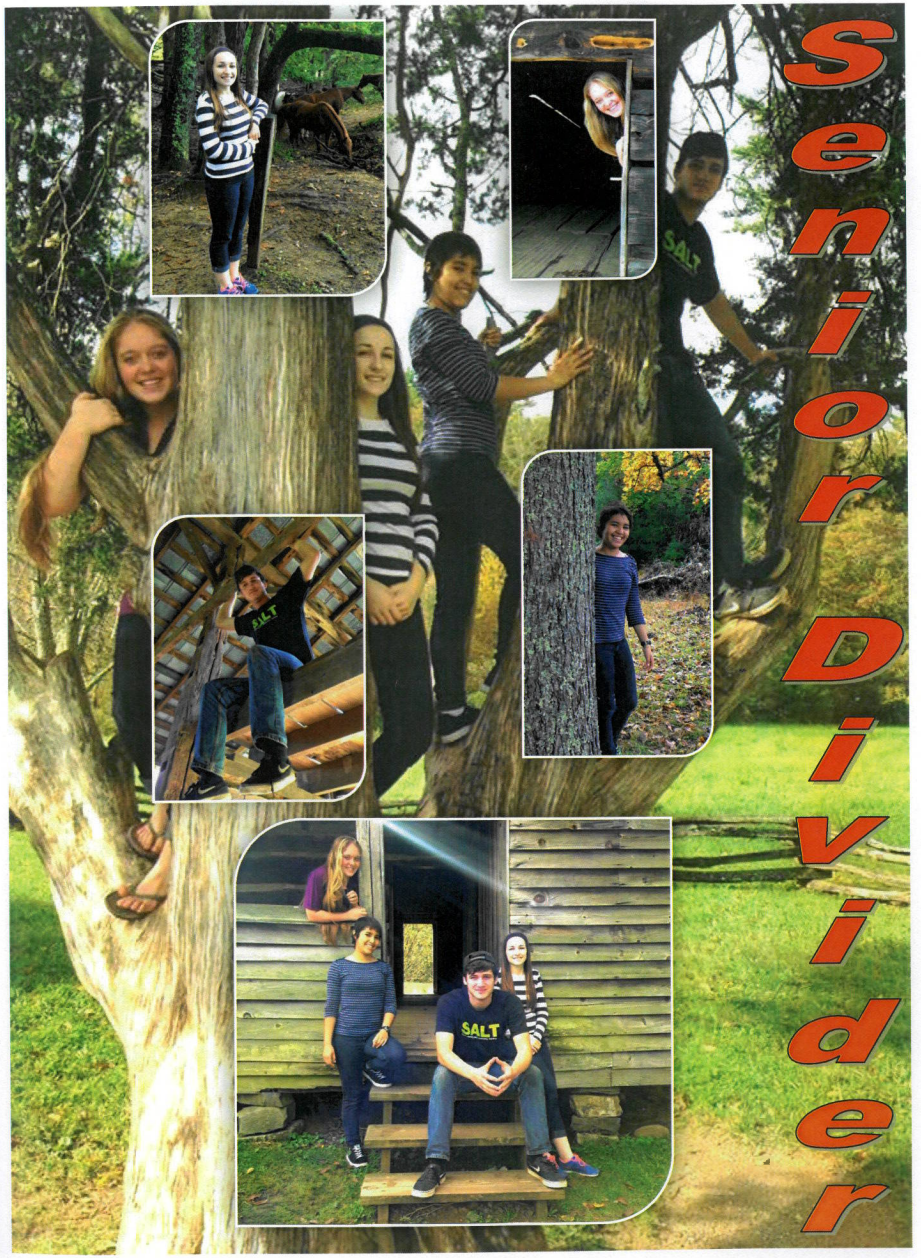

~Inna Olteanu.

Your junior year is probably the most fun, easy, and relaxed year of school, and, most importantly, it will help you get ready for your senior year. Remember to keep moving forward and don't give up. Graduation is just around the corner!

Words of the Wise

The Class of 2015

Congratulations, you are now seniors. Get ready! It's a lot of responsibility! Just keep in mind that even though you're almost done you're not done yet. Don't check out! Keep going strong! Remember to enjoy every minute you have left here, because they are running out quickly, and trust me you're going to miss this. Love you guys!

Becky Oxentenko

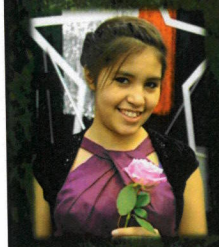

Your senior year is generally one's hardest in high school; at least it was for me. It will either make you or break you. The Bible says that the trying of our faith produces character. This is true. During the senior year, you will face challenges that you never have before and will be forced to make decisions that may go against the crowd, but it will mold you into the person you will be as an adult.

Luke Crawford

You made it! It's your last year, enjoy it. This has been my best year out of them all. Take advantage of everything you can do because you might never have the same opportunity again. It's going to seem that you're never going to graduate, but don't give up, hang in there. Make the best out of every situation. I love every single one of you. Y'all are an awesome class.

Sarah Wehrli

Ecc. 11:9, "Rejoice, young, in your youth, and take your heart pleasure in the days of your adolescence, and walk in the ways of your heart, and at the sight of your eyes..." God wants us, as young Christians, to be cheerful, fun, a delight to our age, and to use this time to prepare for when we are adults who have studies and responsibilities. We must be different in the joy of serving God, different from the world. Joy is never measured in momentary laughter or happiness; joy is that deep feeling of fullness of life, of well-being, of that intimate feeling of inner satisfaction that only God can give us. Be of good courage, future seniors! Work, study, enjoy life, do your part, and let God do His work in you. Have a blessed 2016!

WHAT LAURELBROOK MEANS TO ME

Laurelbrook is definitely a character building experience. But I am so glad for a school like this one because it has surely changed me for the better. I wouldn't trade my time here for anything in the world. I'm so glad that I can call Laurelbrook my second home.

Sarah Wehrli – Class of 2015

Laurelbrook is a place where you can learn many things and grow in many aspects of life. It's a great place to make friends that you know will last for life. But it's mainly where your relationship with Christ gets stronger every day. It's a place where I've found peace and shelter.

Stephany Lazo – Class of 2016

Laurelbrook is a place that you can make friends who will stay by your side when you are going through rough times. No matter what, they will always be there for you.

Alex Campbell – Class of 2017

Laurelbrook means a family that is very loving and friendly. Even though I may not always get along with all of the staff, I still love them because I know they have my best interest at heart. I will never forget this place or the memories I have here.

Messages to Luke

Luke,

You are a very outstanding young man to be in the greatest class in high school. You always know how to work hard at any job that is given to you, even if it might not be the easiest thing in the world to do. God knows what you're capable of doing with your hands, your mind, and your life, and He wants you to use those tools for His glory. He knows you inside and out, from when you were young to until you are old. Listen for Him, Luke. Listen for His voice to guide you in His way to do the tasks He wants you to do for the sake of eternal life. God is asking you and all the people who answer the call to finish the work that Jesus started for us. Remember to carry your cross daily and always look to God for guidance.

Your brothers in Christ,

Alec & Mr. Rich

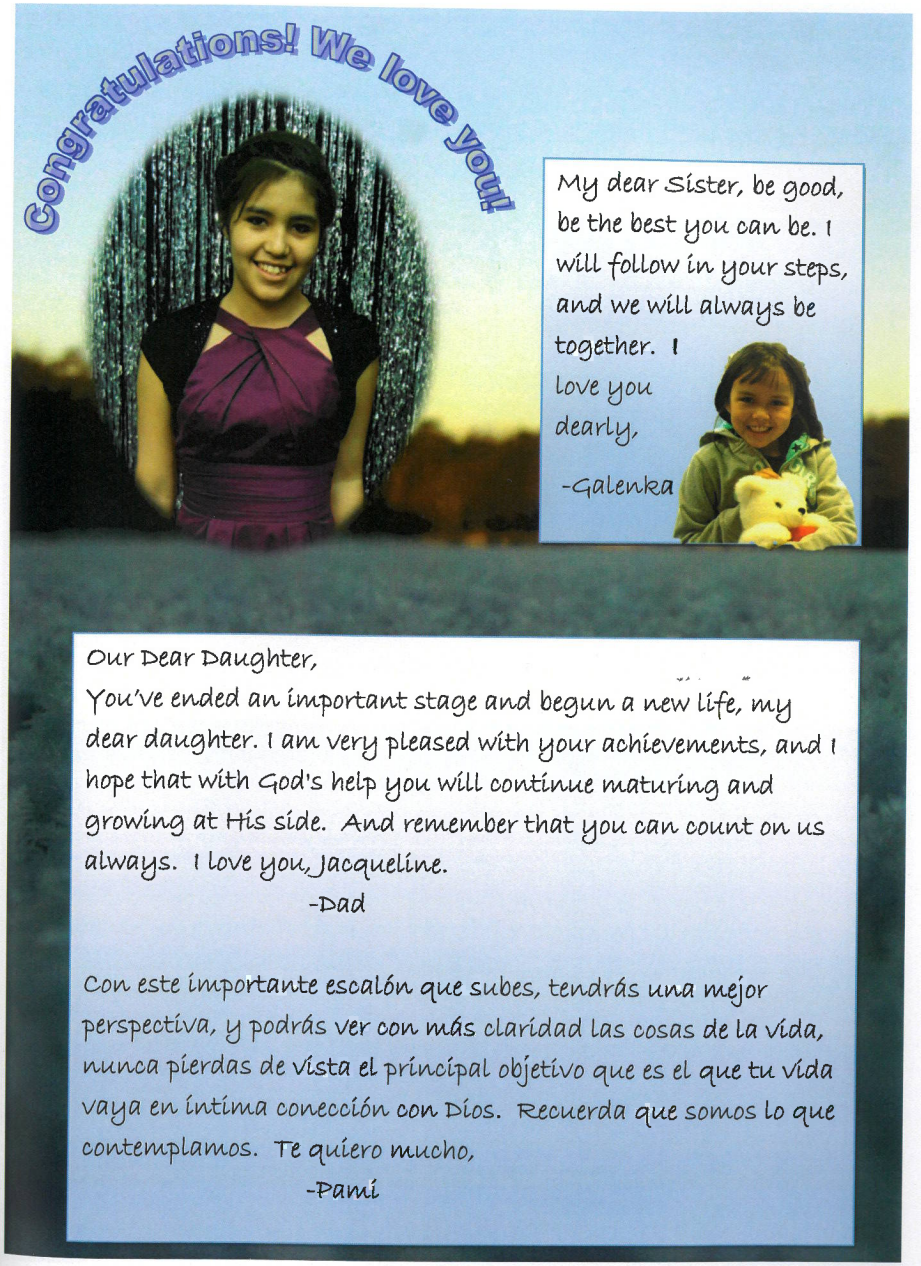

Luke,

We want you to know how proud we are of you. You made the right choice to attend Laurelbrook for your senior year. It is a good environment for you to learn and develop a character fit for heaven. The mission trips afford you valuable life experiences that help guide your future career choices. Hold your head high with the confidence that God loves you, cares for you, and will sustain you whatever comes your way. There will be many obstacles that confront you. You should expect such since Satan desires to sidetrack you from seeking your purpose in life. Go forward proclaiming the promises of God. View your challenges as opportunities in which you will gain the maturity to meet ever increasing, ongoing challenges. Remember the biggest challenge is conquering self. We love you, Luke. There is nothing you can ever do that will keep us from loving you. We have not been perfect parents. We have made our mistakes. Forgive us for our shortcomings. Be ever seeking God's forgiveness and the restoration that comes from this healing process. As you journey along life's highway, take Jesus with you. Stand firm and enjoy the adventure.

Forever loving you,

Mom & Dad

Congratulations! We're SO Proud of YOU!

Dear Becky,
Wow! You are graduating. It's going to take me a long time to process that you're actually going to be an adult now and that you won't have as much time to take drives with me and talk girl talk with me and encourage me when everything's going wrong. I'm still stuck in the stage where we played house and I couldn't sleep without you to chase away the boogie men. It's kind of sad that those times are gone. But I'm thankful for the memories and I know we have a lot more good times coming. Good luck in college. Come pick me up for the weekend sometime! I love you, Becky! Congratulations!

- Heidi (A.K.A. the Greatest Sister Ever)

Our Dear Sweet Becky Girl!
Wow! 18 years and graduating. What happened to our little girl who has always had a mind of her own? We remember her tripping through a forest to hike to daddy's work at age 2 all by herself, sending mom and dad into a panic looking for her; or calling daddy to tell him, "Daddy, I'm being very bad." just to get him to come home from work; Or testing her will against mom's by refusing to write her spelling words; or driving baby sister all over the front yard in your jeep at age 3; not sitting still for mommy to fix her hair. Some of our favorite memories revolve around you and your sister playing by creeks in water and mud or in the woods and fields building forts and meals out of tree pulp; playing so happily with your pet dogs, cats, bunnies, chickens or friends and cousins; birthday parties at the bridge; G wheeling all over the farm; planning surprise birthdays and special times like Mother's Day; reading and telling stories; playing on Mema's swing; riding on daddy's shoulders; snuggling by mom to go to sleep. Your high school years have sure grown you up to be the sweetest, most special daughter in the world! One that we are very proud of to say the least ... who has shown herself to prioritize the right things, like family, and friends and who cares about the heart of everyone she meets, wanting them to be happy and loved. Who is that beautiful girl with the pretty hair and stylish way of dressing and beautiful smile who was a tomboy not but 4 years ago? You are our sweet gift giver ... and we have been the beneficiaries via trips to town eating out, surprise notes and packages, surprise meals (You're an excellent cook!). Yes, you are the oldest and get to pave the way for sister. Hope we haven't been too hard on you. You have honored your parents by supporting us in our mission here at Laurelbrook even when times were not easy. You have amazed us when we listen to your point of view and we know that you have what it takes to enter the next facet of your life as an adult and off to college making your path in that big world out there. Becky, you know our prayer for you is that you will continue to give your life to Our Savior, and that you will stand firm for the truth as it is in Jesus in hard times ahead. Above all know that He and we love you soooo much! You will always be our little girl!

- Mommy and Daddy

We Are So Proud Of You, Sarah!

Ich bin Gott dankbar dass du eine solche Schule besuchen durftest und es geschafft hast durzuhalten. Dass du dich auch fuer Jesus entschieden hast bin ich froh. Du bereitest mir freude wenn ich sehe was aus dir geworden ist. Eine selbstbeusste junge Frau die tolle zukunftsplaene hat. Ich freue mich dich wieder in die arme schliessen zu duerfen und dass du nach hause kommst.
Hab dich lieb Gott segne dich
-Mami

Hey Sarah ,

I am so proud of you! You endured 4 ½ years in the states. Wherever you go never forget the things you learned there. Let your beautiful light shine wherever you go!

With love, Sammy

Well hello there my dear classmate,
I just wanted to tell you how proud I am of you for sticking it out and making it through LBA even though I know there were many times you didn't want to. But hey, we made it! I love you girl and thanks for staying with me. No matter what little discussions we may have I will always be here for you.

Love, Becky

Sarah,

I am glad for the opportunity to say how proud of you I am. You work so hard in my class and never give up. Also, the way you took charge of Bell Choir demonstrates great leadership qualities. Since I first met you, I have noticed personal growth in you and a plan to continue growing in serving the God we both love. You have been a real pleasure for me this year. I pray for your continuing success.

Ms. Dottie

Sarah,

You are a very hard worker. You are very pleasant to be around. We enjoy and will always treasure your company and laughter as you vacationed with us. We love your desire to get your jobs done to the best of your ability, and how you encourage others in their work. You're a natural leader, and you love the Lord. Continue to look to God to bring you through all of lifes desires and trials. God will always embrace you in his loving arms. We love you.

In Memory of Evelyn Knecht Wellman 1924-2014

Evelyn (Knecht) Wellman was born March 17, 1924 in Los Angeles in the White Memorial Hospital.

She was living in the Cadillac, Michigan area when she met Henry Lee Wellman. They were married on June 13, 1954 in the Reed City SDA Church of Osceola, MI.

Lee and Evelyn Wellman lived in Lake George, MI where Lee worked for an auto parts factory prior to moving to Emmanuel Missionary College where Lee got his agriculture degree. From there they moved to North Carolina and worked under Paul Eirich at Winter Haven School.

In 1964 they moved to Laurelbrook School where she worked in different places, including being Mr. Bob's secretary. Before retiring, she had worked as treasurer for about 15 years. She enjoyed bookkeeping and spent many nights working into the wee hours balancing ledgers with adding machines and adding machine tape. She kept the church books as well, entering all the information by hand.

She spent 50 years of her life at Laurelbrook. She watched the school grow from a few acres to the present 2000 or so acres. Laurelbrook was her home, and she gave her life for this school, supporting mission trips and Friends of Laurelbrook and spending time cutting out 3-year cycle sets for Sabbath Schools.

She enjoyed proof reading anything she could get her hands on. She enjoyed Scrabble and in her later years, Anagrams. She also enjoyed puzzles and vacations in her later years.

She died on July 9 at age 90. A true Laurelbrook pioneer - she will be missed.

2015 YEARBOOK STAFF AND MANUFACTURE

The yearbook staff was divided into three groups, each headed by an experienced yearbook staff member. Rebecca Oxentenko headed one group consisting of Dyaine Falkenhagen and Stephany Lazo. Her sister Heidi headed a second group consisting of Alec Rice and Angelina Ottey (Anna Harden was originally a member of this group). Sarah Wehrli headed a third group with Jessica Kim as a member (the group originally had two more members – Jonathan Thrower and Alex Campbell). There were three adults who helped with the project – James Brenneman as head advisor, Nancy Brenneman (ads and advisor), and Jacqualine Miller (ad sales person).

The yearbook was printed on the academy office's Minolta Print Center and bound with covers and binding machine from ChannelBind Corporation. The cover decals were supplied by SheetLabels.com and printed on the Minolta Print Center. The students helped with the printing and binding.
